SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

The head of the personnel section of the German Economic Commission, Arthur Pieck, contemplates moving key employees to the Russian sector of Berlin, and paying all employees residing in the western sectors partially in Deutsche Mark. He expects the situation to become worse, strikes, especially of transportation workers, to develop, and all SED members and DTK employees in western sectors of Berlin to be under allied surveillance.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the order of 15 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
